14. To perpetuate survey markings.
15. To erect and maintain guideposts on the highways and other ways within the township at such places as are necessary or convenient for the direction of travelers.
16. To examine, compare, and balance the books of the township clerk and the treasurer at the annual meeting in March of each year.
17. To pay all or a part of the cost of electricity used in electrically lighting the streets of cities located within the township.
18. To insure the township's property which is not required to be insured against loss by fire or tornado by the state fire and tornado fund in a stock or mutual fire insurance company or in the state fire and tornado fund.

19. Repealed by S.L. 1989, ch. 559, § 7.

20. To submit a budget for the township at its annual meeting.

58-06-02. Compensation of supervisors. A township supervisor is entitled to receive as compensation for services twenty dollars a day for each day necessarily devoted to the work of a supervisor's office not exceeding six hundred dollars in a calendar year. Additional compensation over six hundred dollars may be provided for reimbursement of expenses and mileage at a rate not exceeding the allowable mileage rate accepted by the United States internal revenue service for each mile [1.61 kilometers] necessarily traveled in the performance of a supervisor's duties.

58-06-03. Regular meetings of board of township supervisors - When held. The board of township supervisors shall hold regular meetings on the second Tuesday in March, on the fourth Tuesday in March, and on the second Monday in June of each year, except that in the discretion of the township supervisors the meetings provided for the second Tuesday and fourth Tuesday in March may be held on the same day as the annual township meeting as provided in section 58-04-01.

58-06-04. May hold adjourned and special meetings. The board of township supervisors may adjourn from time to time and in cases of emergency may hold special meetings on the call of the township clerk.

58-06-05. Where meetings of board of supervisors held. The regular meetings of the board of township supervisors must be held at the office of the township clerk or at the usual place for holding the annual township meetings if there is one.

58-06-06. Quorum of the board. Two of the supervisors constitute a quorum for the performance of the duties of the board of township supervisors except when otherwise provided by law.

58-06-07. Board of township supervisors to elect chairman. At its first regular meeting following the annual township meeting, the board of township supervisors shall elect one of its members as chairman. The chairman shall serve for a term of one year.

58-06-08. Approve bonds of township officers. At its first meeting after the election of township officers, the chairman of the board of township supervisors shall approve the bonds of township officers and the officers immediately shall enter upon the discharge of their duties.

58-06-09. Audit accounts. At the last regular meeting in each year, the board of township supervisors shall audit accounts, settle with the township overseer of highways, and transact any other business that may come before it.

58-06-10. Business with board - When to appear. All persons having business to transact with the board of township supervisors shall appear before the board at any regular meeting or file such business with the township clerk to be laid before the board by the township clerk at its next meeting.
